Audio tips Don't be alarmed if you find your toolbar hidden in the bottom-right corner. It may look like a standard toolbar, but it is actually a section of the interface that contains only the most important parts of the user interface:

- Toolbar: where all the top controls are. Drag your interface elements around using the blue borders to arrange and position them.
- Split window: the rightmost part of your window containing the timeline. Drag a selection rectangle around a section to cut it out. To join sections and remove them from the timeline, drag a selection rectangle over the section and hit the link button.
- Library panel: a row of controls and menu that hold the audio files you have loaded.
- Editing panel: a tabbed area across the bottom of your interface where you can manipulate your music, set the tempo
